Important message

You must be in possession of a boarding pass by the time check-in closes or you will not be accepted for the flight. You can collect your boarding pass online or at a check-in kiosk.

Where required, you must present your paper ticket, e-Ticket receipt, passport, visas, photo ID etc... at the airport. Failure to do so may result in airport authorities or airlines refusing you leave to travel.

If you are denied boarding or if your flight is cancelled or delayed for at least two hours, ask at the check-in counter or boarding gate for the text stating your rights, particularly with regards to compensation and assistance.
